HLT54121 - Diploma of Nursing

NATIONALLY RECOGNISED
TRAINING

*Eligibility Applies

Course Overview

The HLT54121 Diploma of Nursing represents the vital role of an enrolled nurse, working under the supervision of a registered nurse to provide compassionate care across all stages of life.

To become a registered enrolled nurse in Australia, candidates must complete a Diploma of Nursing program accredited by the Australian Nursing and Midwifery Accreditation Council (ANMAC) and recognized by the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia (NMBA). To verify the accreditation of your chosen program, visit the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) at www.ahpra.gov.au.

The scope of practice for enrolled nurses is defined by legislative requirements and organizational policies, ensuring a supportive environment for professional growth. This qualification fulfills the NMBA's registration requirements, enabling you to make a meaningful impact as an enrolled nurse.

Mode of Delivery

Face to face delivery

(For WA funding requirement only)

IHNA will deliver two and a half days of on-campus classes on a weekly basis. During these classes, students attend theory and simulation-based training and learning. During the simulation-based training in IHNA simulation labs, educators demonstrate nursing clinical procedures and students are required to practise and demonstrate clinical nursing. In addition, students are to attend mandatory work placement of 400 hours.

Credit Transfer (CT)

Credit Transfer allows students to have their prior formal training recognised for identical units of competency completed as part of another qualification. Evidence such as a USI transcript or a certified Statement of Attainment must be provided, ensuring a streamlined process for granting credits.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

IHNA's Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) Policy ensures that students' prior learning, gained through formal or informal training, work experience, or other life experiences, is recognised. Students can submit a portfolio of evidence and may participate in interviews or practical demonstrations to validate their skills and knowledge.
